Nameplates & Dials, Overlays, Panels

Product identification at its best.

With our extensive list of printing and fabrication capabilities, Wilson-Hurd can offer you a detailed nameplate, overlay, or panel to suit your project's unique needs. Our Berlin plant pairs screen, litho, and digital printing techniques with fabrication processes on a wide variety of materials to offer you a cost-effective and reliable product at any volume.

Our in-house design and pre-press team will collaborate with you to determine which design options suit your project best, including domed nameplates, embossing, selective texturing, colored LED windows, and hard-coating.

Nameplates & Dials

When durability and high quality are a priority, Wilson-Hurd's nameplates & dials consistently out-perform the competition. Our wide variety of design, printing, and fabrication capabilities mixed with our extensive list of dependable materials and coatings turn even the simplest nameplates or dials into a lasting work of art.

Overlays

Let our talented team of designers create a stunning overlay for you, by using top of the line design, printing, and fabrication technologies. Looking for a design that is exclusive to your brand? Our full service color lab utilizes solvent and UV based chemistries to provide custom color matching of any color, including those that are reflected or transparent, providing you with an impressive and noticeably unique product.

Panels

Panels or enclosures can be used to stabilize any overlay to create a lasting product, and can also be used as trim. Our team will review your product requirements and recommend a suitable material to withstand harsh environments including exposure to various chemicals, and extreme temperatures. We can also provide in-house assembly, resulting in a simpler production process for you.
